TRAPPIST & BELGIAN CLASSICS

Chimay Blue Top fermented Trappist beer, refermented in the bottle, not pasteurized. Chimay Blue is principally distinguished by its character of a strong beer. This is a beer whose fragrance of fresh yeast with a light, flowery rosy touch is especially pleasant. Orval The Orval Trappist brewery makes only one beer for the general public. It has an intensely aromatic and dry character. Between the first and second fermentations there is also an additional dry-hopping process. Through this the beer acquires its pronounced hoppy aroma and extra dry taste. It has a complex and unusual flavor and aroma produced by a unique strain of yeast: Brettanomyces bruxellensis. Considered by many to be a must try and a world classic. Served in its original glass.	BE	330ml	6.20%	7.00 lv.
Pauwel Kwak Created in the 1980s, and named after an 18th century brewer and innkeeper, Pauwel Kwak, who apparently developed a shorter version of the traditional English long stirrup glass for coachmen to use. Winterkoninkske Grand Cru Winterkoninkske Grand Cru was first brewed in 2009. Since then each year there's a small variation, but it's always a strong dark beer to enjoy with (or without) moderation. The use of different dark malts results in tones of chocolate, coffee and sherry. This makes it a perfect match for game dishes and chocolate desserts. This beer is only available in 75 cl. Bottle. This year it's been finished in American oak barrels. Ratebeer 99/97.

BE 750ml
(cork bottle) 13.00% 22.00 lv.

St. Bernardus Christmas Ale

This is an intensely dark beer with a full, yet slightly fruity flavour, overflowing with the tastes of winter and zesty seasonal aromas. Aniseed notes are complemented by hints of creamy caramel and fire-roasted chestnuts. This zestiness shows no signs of abating, pushing through to a magnificent finish of dried fruits and chocolate. Just like the rest of St. Bernardus beers, this brew bears the imprint of the unique St. Bernardus yeast (dating back to 1946), that gives it its own special complexity. Simply stated, St. Bernardus Christmas Ale is the perfect degustation beer to warm your heart and bring a glow to your loved ones on a cold winter night. Ratebeer 99/96.
